1. [] advised that the Director stated he would make the Senate Foreign Relations briefing on 23 January if necessary but inquired if it could possibly be put over until the next week. Upon reviewing the Director's calendar only Monday, 26 January, was available. A request was made to Carl Marcy to change from the 23rd to the 26th. Mr. Marcy indicated he thought it could be done but he would have to confirm it.

2. General Cabell stated he had seen Representative George Mahon (D., Texas) over the weekend and requested that I attempt to arrange a luncheon date for further debriefing of Mr. Mahon. After checking calendars, Mr. Mahon's office was contacted and arrangements were made for a luncheon here on the 16th of January. A proposed guest list is being forwarded to the DCI and DDCI.

3. Sam Crosby telephoned to inquire if the briefing of the Defense Subcommittee of House Appropriations could be moved forward to Monday, 19 January. Upon checking this with the DCI, Mr. Crosby was advised that this date was satisfactory. The time was set for 10 o'clock. Mr. Crosby again mentioned that he had heard the Agency had done some analysis of trends of defense spending in the Soviet budget. Mr. Crosby further stated he would telephone the Director to indicate further the content to be covered in the briefing.
